

April 6, 2022 (42 day)

In the temporarily occupied territories, the enemy is searching for and detaining pro-Ukrainian residents, in particular, such cases have been confirmed in the city of Berdyansk in the Zaporizhia region and in some settlements of the Kharkiv region. There are 500 Russians and 50 units of enemy equipment at the Zaporizhzhya NPP.

The previous night, 27 strikes were inflicted on residential areas of Kharkiv. In the Kherson region, most of the occupied settlements are on the verge of a humanitarian catastrophe, many of them without electricity and water.

Work on demining the recently liberated districts of Kyiv region continues. Rescuers are dismantling the debris in the town of Borodyanka, where many people were hiding in basements after air strikes. During the 35 days of Russian occupation, more than 400 people went missing in Gostomel. The bodies of civilians killed by the Russian military are also found in Vorzel. During these days, 89 people died in Kyiv, 398 people were injured, 167 houses, 44 schools, 26 kindergartens and 11 administrative buildings were damaged.

The storming of the city of Mariupol continues in the Donetsk region. Over the past 24hrs, there have been 118 air bombardments of the city. In Mariupol, Russian mobile crematoria are burning the bodies of tortured and murdered residents after the genocide in Bucha was announced. According to preliminary information, the death toll is 5,000. In Vugledar, Russian troops fired artillery at a humanitarian aid site, killing two and wounding five people.

In the Luhansk region 11 houses were destroyed, shelling of residential districts of Rubizhne, Lysychansk, Popasna is carried out. Due to the shelling of Severodonetsk, 10 high-rise buildings are on fire.

Yesterday, on April 5, explosions were heard in the city of Radekhiv, Lviv region. In the Dnipropetrovsk region, Russian missiles destroyed an oil depot in the Synelnykivskyi district and a fuel depot at one of the plants in the Novomoskovskyi district at night (6 fuel and lubricant tanks were destroyed).

During the night, they hit an infrastructure facility in the town of Kozyatyn in the Vynnytsia region.

In Trostyanets, Sumy region, which was taken over by the Russian military, an ambulance substation has been inspected and medics are not allowed to make calls.

A photo of women servicemen who were recently released from captivity, tortured and shaved by Russians was released last night.

Romania has declared 10 employees of the Russian embassy persona non grata. Slovenia is reducing the staff of the Russian Embassy by 33 people. Greece has declared 12 Russian diplomats persona non grata. Norway sends 3 Russian diplomats.

 The facts described in the analytical information are confirmed by the materials of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine*